

NEW MODEL INFORMATION MANUAL

LANCER EVOLUTION-VIII

FOREWORD

This manual has been prepared as an explanation of the main changes in the 2003 LANCER-EVOLUTION-VIII. It only describes the differences from the LANCER-EVOLUTION-VII. It should be used in conjunction with the related material in the following pages. This manual is based on the current model as of January 2003. Please note that its content may not conform to that of future models due to specification changes etc. Please also note that the units described in this manual are based on SI units, which is the International System of Units, and conventional units are not included.
(However, old units are used for some figures taken from existing documents)

Any opinions, requests, or questions concerning this manual, should be written on the 'Servicing Comment Form' at the end, and sent to us by fax.
